Persons who still have any lingering doubts about the manner in which the anta Barbara resolution about W. S. Moore was " procured " and passed are rred to a special dispatch printed in o day's TIMES, which contains valuable rmation and throws light-if any were needed—on the question of the origin of that resolution. The TIMES yesterday received from a resident of Santa Barbara, now in Los Angeles, who was present in the Republican County Conention, a particular account of the manner in which the resolution was presented, discussed and passed. It was reported by Judge E. B. This proper y is advancing in value every day, and all we would ask of you is to examine it before you purchase elsewhere. We wish to give you bargains, and you will be convinced of it. You have heard that Los Angeles is grow ing southwest, and such is most assuredly the case. Look into the matter, and you will find this tract is being surrounded by our city. The soil is perfect; water pure, and the neighborhood as charming as a picture, and from this point you have the finest view of the mountains to be obtained in the county, and most every summer day, commencing about il a. m., a refreshing breeze, Just think if you can get lots here for only $4 per front foot. You can have them for $50 cash, and installments of $10 per month, without interest. The tract is a few minutes walk from the Electric road, on Pico street or the proposed one on Adams street; or the horse car line to be built on Washington street, and you have good schools and churches, etc. close at hand. I am in from 9 to 12 a. m., and will take you out with pleasure at 2 p. m.

wrote very severe articles to the Herald and Express.

For several days the Times has been aware that Hamlet R. Brown was whetting a long knife for the people whom he believed to be too "previous" in taking up oudgels in a matter which did not concern them. He has said nothing about it to the Times; but the reportorial nose generally sniffs such events when they are in the air. Yesterday the prehiminaries were completed, and Mr. Brown, through Adams & Stratton, his attorneys, filed a civil suit for libel against Mr. Burks. Trimmed of a little of its legally verbose introduction, the interesting document is as follows:

"EDITOR HERALD:—Allow me, as a representative of the church of which Rev. P. W. Dorsey is pastor, to say that not one member of the church believes that there is a word of truth in the charge brought against him by H. B. Brown and the Los ANGELES TIMES. This Brown, aside from the fact that he is generally believed to have caused the burning of his stock of goods in San Bernardino, is known to be utterly dishonest and unreliable, and there are hundreds of people in Los Angeles who would not believe him on oath, but he has been so shrewd in his rascality that it has been hard to secure evidence on which he could be excluded from the church. His wife, on the other hand, is a modest and reflued Christian lady. Notwithstanding that he has mistreated her for years, she has borne his abuse rather than have the matter made public. Finally, she was forced to appeal to her relatives, who advised her to leave him and apply for a divorce. This she decided to do, but after she had gone to her uncle's, Rev. Dr. Parker, he sought an interview with her, and on his knees in the most abject manner, begged her to return, promising to give everything into her hands, and that he would never mistreat her again. As his health was bad, she consented to return and take care of him. After a few weeks he began a mistreate her again, but threatened to rain her character if she ever left. an interview with her, and on his knees in the most abject manner, begged her to return, promising to give everything into her hands, and that he would never mistreat her again. As his health was bad, she consented to return and take care of him. After a few weeks he began to mistreat her again, but threatened to ruin her character if she ever left him again. During all this time there was no charge against Mr. Dorsey except that he and Mrs. Dorsey bad influenced her to leave him, but after admitted to the church that he had no grievance against Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey. When, however, he applied to the church for a letter of dismission in order that he might escape expulsion, it was refused, at which he became angry and made a threat that if it was not granted he would prefer charges, but did not say against whom. I do not fear that any one who knows either Mr. Dorsey or Mrs. Brown, will for a moment believe the charges, and I will ask those who do not know them to kindly suspend judgment till their utter falsity can be proven."

Potatoes continue very scarce. The new Los Angeles crop is not coming in yet in any considerable amounts, and the supply on band is mostly of Northern, and as a rule is rather poor. In fact the quentity of really good Potatoes now on hand is exceedingly small. Good and poor, however, command high prices, $1.50 being the common figure.

It was a sickening sight which greeted those who stepped inside the humble cottage. Upon a lounge by the front window lay Mr. Kipp, his thin, aged face rigid and ghastly, his breath and pulses faint and futtering. Over him hung the despairing little wife, with her arm under his pillow and her face laid to his, patting his wan brow with her hand, and saying:

Oh. papal speak to me once." Upon the bed lay curled a despairing 8-year-old boy, crying as though his heart would break. Across the threshold of the kitchen lay Mrs. Baynton upon her back, her fair, sweet face colorless from pain, constitution and her fearful wound strug-gling for mastery. Kindly neighbors with moist eyes and shaky voices were ministering such friendly services as they could give, and Drs. T. B. McCarthy, Will E Lindley, W. P. Percival and H. B. Ellis gave medical and surgical assist-ance.

At 8:45, an hour after the shooting, Mr. Kipp breathed his last in the arms of his wife. Nettie was holding her own fairly, and had a chance of living, though the odds were strongly against her. The bodies of Mr. Kipp and Mrs. Baynton were taken to Sutch & Orr's undertaking establishment.

Coronado Besch is situated directly across the bay of San Diego, one mile from the city. It contains 4(0) acres of rich, sandy loam, from 20 to 70 feet above tide water, which is subdivided and platted in an artistic manner into vills and other lots.

The ocean beach is one of the finest in the world, stretching far away into old Mexico. For bathing and driving it is unsurpassed. The surf is medium, with no undertow.

The climate is aimust perfection, averaging about 68 to 70 degrees throughout the entire year. Frost or hot weather both unknown. The rarest tropical plants grow out of doors. perse to him that the cold always seems to settle in the head and throat.

At times many of the symptoms of catarrh may seem to abate, and the patient is led to hope that the disease is about to wear of; but another class of symptoms soon appears, and he learns to his horror that, instead of recovering from the disease, it is somewhat changed in character, and has extended to the throat. A sense of wearlness is sometimes felt in reading, speaking or anging; hoarseness at times occurs; a sensation of dryness is felt in the throat, or it appears that some foreign substance, as for instance a hair, obstructed the throat; there becomes a sense of languor and fatigue, breath lessen upon a little exertion, short, hacking cough, a peculiar sound in clearing the throat, a feeling as though there were not room of doors.

The view of ocean, bay and mountain seenery is magnificent, and in variety and The view of coean, any and invariety and beauty cannot be excelled.

of the disease may have been slow, and the patient may, in expressing his confident hope that it will "wear off," declare that he has had the catarrh for years and has not seemed to become much worse, and trusts that he will by and by recover; but this delusion is the grand error that has peopled our cemeterles with consumptive forms.

We are positive in asying that three-fourths of the vast number who die of consumption might be sived, did they awaken to the true sense of danger when the disease first appeared in the head and throat, and the best writers, the ablest physicians of the symptoms of consumption, for there is scarcely a family in our northern elimate whose circle has not been invaded by the destroyer—scarcely a home wherin some loved one has not felt its blight, and either passes away from earth or is wasting to-day and seeming the header of its wasting to-day and seeming the header of its wasting to-day and seeming the header. loved one has not felt its blight, and either passed away from earth or is wasting to-day and seening the hopeless victim of this terrible disease.

The symptoms of the first stage of consumption are various. The following are prominent, and wherever any of them exists thorough examination should always be unade, with a view to arre ting the disease, if shown to exist. There is usually a sense of weariness upon little exercise, a disposition to remain passive and idle, despondency of intimes from no apparent cause, a peculiar sensitiveness to the effect of cold, and breathlessness as upon moving, or descending a hill or stairs, a slight hacking cough with or without expectoration, excitability upon slight occasions, flying pains through
